Alexandria Body Will Hold Exercises Tomorrow Evening When It Is to Be Formally Presented.

Alexandria, Va., March 14.-Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, has completed all arrangements for the official visit to the lodge tomorrow night by John S. Draper, district deputy grand exalted ruler, of Pulaski, Va. Degree work of the order will be conferred work of the order will be conferred by a team composed of past exalted rulers.

Following the degree work there will be a social session, a feature of which will be the formal presentation of the coveted "golden key," which was obtained several days ago from the Harrisonburg Lodge by Robert S. Barrett, past district deputy grand exalted ruler, and James W. Bales, past exalted ruler of the local lodge. This key has been in the possession of various lodges in the State since it was made about eight years ago in Norfolk and in every instance it has been surreptitiously taken from one lodge to another. This will be the first time in the history of the local lodge that it has had possession of the key, which is about two and one-half feet long it is planned by the local lodge to have the key adorn the antiers of the elk in front of its

GERMAN.

Berlin, March 14 (by wireless).-The following official summary of oper-ations was received today from main headquarters

Several of the enemy's ships yesterday afternoon shelled, without resuit, the German positions from the direction of Nicuport and a point near Lapanne.

"Near Neuve Chapelle, aside from one isolated English attack, which was repulsed, there have been only artillery duels. 'In Champagne the French, east of Souain and north of Mesnii, yester-day made repeated attacks by small forces, all of which broke down under the German fire with heavy losses to the French. "In the Vosges the weather has improved and fighting has been re-sumed. The French here, as well as in the Argonne, are using a new sort of hand grenade which fills the air with a pestilential odor. They also are using rifle ammunition with explosive shells which produce flames when they strike their targets. These were brought into use once more in yes-terday's engagements. "On the eastern front the situation

BRITISH.

London, March 14.-The press bureau of the war office issues the following statement covering operations of Britsh troops on the western front;

"A heavy counter-attack was de-livered by the enemy against our advanced position in the region of La Bassee yesterday afternoon. Several minor counter-attacks had been delivered earlier in the day and all were repulsed.

"Judging by observations in various parts of the field of battle and by statements from prisoners, of whom there are now 1,739, the enemy's losses must have been very heavy and cannot have fallen far short of 10,000 men in the three days of fighting. "A train at the station of Don was blown up by our aircraft this morn-

Adventist Thinks War Will Also Result in Tendency Toward Government by Authority.

Prof. W. W. Prescott, in an address at the Seventh-Day Adventist Church at Takoma Park last night, declared that inch disappearing rine, the most plant Takoma Park last night, declared that ful of its size, proved so heavy that a increased prestige of the Pope, extension ful of its size, proved so heavy that of Roman Catholic doctrines in England freight car broke down under it at Corn and America, and the tendency toward government by authority, representing the papal idea, rather than by the voice of the people, may be results to be expected of the European war. He urged the substantial of the substantial control of the European war. He urged the substantial of the following substantial control of the following substantia the maintenance of the fundamental principles of civil liberty and a campaign of education which would teach the people the issues involved in a revival of the power of the papacy.

Prof. Prescott quoted Cardinal Manning, who said in 1862 that "the dissolution of the temporal power of the Pope would lead to the dissolution of Christendom, that is, of Christian Eu-rope." Cardinal Farley was quoted as saying in October that "almost every nation in Europe was persecut-ing the church and now they are paying the penalty, suffering for sins against God."

Prof. Prescott quoted from the Roman Catholic: "Might not one of the unexpected results of the war be restoration in some form of the Pope's temporal power?" He also quoted a dispatch from Rome, dated February 2 saying: "No secret is made of the influence this will have in carrying out the Pontiff's plans for settlement of papal claims to temporal sovereignty Sumerous news extracts were read to able person to act as peacemaker at the end of the war.
